

I am opposed to the weakening of wisconsin's no-call list. My elderly parents are already innundated with telemarketing calls that disrupt their day and distress them. Please don't allow the situation to get even worse.